Trinity Sunday is a Solemnity in the Catholic Church that celebrates the foundational doctrine of the Trinity: one God in three distinct, co-equal divine Persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Observed on the Sunday immediately following Pentecost, it honors the mystery of who God is rather than a specific historical event.

Prayer in Praise of the Trinity

I venerate and glorify you, O most Blessed Trinity, in union with that ineffable glory with which God the Father, in His omnipotence, honors the Holy Spirit forever.

I magnify and bless you, O most Blessed Trinity, in union with that most reverent glory with which God the Son, in his unsearchable wisdom, Glorifies the Father and the Holy Spirit forever.

I adore and extol you, O most Blessed Trinity, in union with that most adequate and befitting glory with which the Holy Spirit in His unchangeable goodness, extols the Father and the Son forever.

Amen. (Source: Catholic.org)

The Most Holy Trinity

First Reading: Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9

The Lord appears to Moses on Mount Sinai and proclaims to him that the Lord is a “merciful God...slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity.”

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Paul exhorts the Corinthians to live in peace and harmony, and for the first time, invokes the Blessed Trinity.

Gospel: John 3:16-18
